

Considering the relative few violators of broadcast decency standards, the recording of an entire broadcast day is not only time-prohibitive, it is also cost prohibitive. Staffing and financial resources of big stations (where many of the violations take place) are far greater of small-market stations with small-market budgets.

Tim Metcalf
Program Director
KRPS Public Radio

--MMEXcae627caae36ef43640de41abd652a37--